STATE SENATE DISTRICTS

DESCRIPTION OF OFFICIAL STATE SENATE DISTRICTS

District 1

Independent Ray Johnson and Republican Senator John Doolittle both live in this northern California district which covers the northern counties from Sacramento to the Oregon border. It is 36.7% Republican but could be won by either party.

District 2

This district consists of the coastal counties and Solano County and is safe for Democratic Senator Barry Keene. If Keene were to retire, a Republican could conceivably win this seat.

District 3

Only incumbent GOP Senator Milton Marks could hold this San Francisco / Marin seat for the Republicans. It is only 27.5% Republican and is sure to be a prime battleground next year.

District 4

Senator Johnson's old home county of Butte is in this district but the Senator for the district is Republican Jim Nielsen. With a 38% Republican registration it is safe for Nielsen but could be won by a Democrat were he to retire.

District 5

Democrat John Garamendi is probably safe in this mountain and Sacramento County district. The district would be fairly marginal if Garamendi were to retire.

District 6

This district consists of Sacramento city and suburbs and is safe for Democratic Senator Leroy Greene.

District 7

Democratic Senator Dan Boatwright is safe in this Contra Costa County district. It includes all of the Democratic towns in the county.

District 8

Democratic incumbent John Foran has no problems in this heavily Democratic San Francisco / San Mateo County district.

District 9

This district, consisting of Berkeley, Oakland and a part of Contra Costa County, is safe for Democratic Senator Nick Petris.

District 10

Democratic Senator Bill Lockyer won this southern Alameda County district in 1982. It is generally safe for a Democrat.

District 11

No incumbent represents this west Bay seat which contains most of the Republican suburbs south of San Francisco. With a 41% Republican registration, a Republican should win the seat in 1984, but there is enough marginal territory that a Democrat could triumph here.

District 12

This district contains urban parts of San Jose and the county of Stanislaus. Democrat Dan McQuoquedale won this marginal district over an incumbent Republican in 1982, but it could be won back by a Republican.

District 13

Incumbent Democrat Al Alquist is safe in this San Jose / Santa Clara district.

District 14

Although this district is marginal on paper, incumbent Republican Ken Maddy has no problems in this central valley and coastal district. It is 34.4% Republican.

District 15

While this district has a fairly high GOP registration -- 36.5% -- it is safe for conservative Democratic incumbent Rose Ann Vuich. It consists of Fresno and Tulare Counties.

District 16

Democratic Senator Walter Stiern won a narrow re-election in this district, which includes Bakersfield, Kings County, and part of Pasadena. A Republican might well win the seat should Stiern step down.

District 17

Democrat Henry Mello should hold this Democratic-leaning seat, which includes Monterey and Santa Cruz Counties and part of Santa Clara County.

District 18

Democratic Senator Gary Hart won a close contest for this marginal district in Santa Barbara, Ventura, and Los Angeles Counties. It is 35% Republican and under 50% Democratic, and could be won by either party in the future.

District 19

GOP Senator Ed Davis is safe in this San Fernando Valley, Ventura and Santa Barbara district.

District 20

Democratic Senator Alan Robbins handily won re-election in this heavily Democratic San Fernando Valley district in 1982.

District 21

This seat consists of Glendale, Monrovia, Arcadia, part of Pasadena, and the Antelope Valley, and is heavily Republican. It is safe for GOP Senator Newton Russell.

District 22

Most of the Jewish and Democratic communities of west Los Angeles are in this heavily Democratic district won in 1982 by Senator Herschal Rosenthal.

District 23

Senate President Pro-Tempore David Roberti holds this safely Democratic seat in Hollywood and Burbank.

District 24

This heavily Hispanic and Democratic district was won in 1982 by Democratic Senator Art Torres after a bitter primary. It is safe for Torres.

District 25

This seat runs from Azusa out into the San Bernardino desert. It is heavily Republican and should be safe for incumbent GOP Senator Bill Richardson -- or for any other Republican, should Richardson choose to retire.

District 26

This is a heavily Hispanic and Democratic district in the San Gabriel Valley. It is safe for Democratic Senator Joseph Montoya.

District 27

This 85% Democratic seat contains most of the south-central Los Angeles black communities and is safe for Democratic Senator Bill Greene.

District 28

Black Democratic Senator Diane Watson is safe in this district running from central Los Angeles to the coast. It is heavily black and Democratic.

District 29

This district contains Republican beach communities in southern Los Angeles County, and is safe for GOP Senator Bob Beverly.

District 30

Veteran Democratic Senator Ralph Dills, the dean of the legislature, is safe in this south-central Los Angeles working-class district.

District 31

Senator Bill Campbell, the Senate minority leader, is safe in this Los Angeles /Orange County Republican district.

District 32

This was the only marginal Senate seat won by a Republican in 1982. It was strengthened to nearly 41% Republican in the latest reapportionment and should be safe for GOP Senator Ed Royce.

District 33

Democratic Senator Paul Carpenter should be safe in this Los Angeles / central Orange County district, despite the fact it is marginal on paper. The district has a 33% Republican registration.

District 34

This district consists of Democratic towns running from Pomona to San Bernardino, and is safe for Democratic Senator Ruben Ayala.

District 35

GOP Senator John Seymour is safe in this suburban Orange County district.

District 36

This seat consists of most of Riverside County. Democratic Senator Robert Presley is safe in this seat as it now exists, but a Republican could win the seat if he retired: It is 38% Republican.

District 37

No incumbent currently represents this gerrymandered Orange / San Diego / Riverside / Imperial County district, although Senator Ollie Speraw says he plans to run here. It is the most Republican seat in the State, with a registration of just under 50% GOP.

District 38

This northern San Diego seat was drawn for GOP Senator Bill Craven, and he is safe in the district. It is 46% Republican.

District 39

Republican Senator Jim Ellis is safe in this San Diego district, which has an equal number of Republicans and Democrats. It consists of the area just north of downtown San Diego.

District 40

This district consists of most of the Democratic parts of San Diego County and is safe for Democratic Senator Wadie Deddeh.

SEBASTIANI REDISTRICTING PLANS:

DESCRIPTIONS OF THE SEBASTIANI PLAN STATE SENATE DISTRICTS

District 1

This district unites all of the rural counties north of Sacramento into a safe seat for Republican-turned-Independent, Ray Johnson. This seat might be marginal without an incumbent.

District 2

This district ties the northern coastal counties to the agricultural areas of Napa and Solano Counties. It is a fairly safe district for Democrat Barry Keene.

District 3

The counties of Sonoma, Marin, and part of San Francisco make up a marginal district that Milton Marks could win. It is, however, a more conservative district than the liberal Republican Marks is used to.

District 4

This is a seat located entirely in San Francisco that will be safe for Democrat John Foran.

District 5

This is a seat made up of the mountain counties and part of Sacramento and San Joaquin Counties where Republican John Doolittle and Democrat John Garamendi could battle it out. It is a conservative district, but its 38% Republican registration makes it lean to the Republican side.

District 6

This district, which contains Yolo County and most of urban Sacramento, is the home of Republican Jim Nielson and Democrat Leroy Greene. But Nielson could not win here because of the high Democratic registration edge. This seat is safe for Greene.

District 7

This is a marginal seat in Contra Costa County currently represented by Democrat Dan Boatwright. Boatwright could hold it as long as he wants.

District 8

This Alameda County seat includes San Leandro, Hayward, Livermore, Pleasanton and Fremont. It is safe for Democrat Bill Lockyer.

District 9

This is a safe seat for Democrat Nicholas Petris in Oakland and Berkeley. It has a large black population.

District 10

This is a safe Democratic district in Santa Clara County which includes Milpitas, Santa Clara, Campbell and most of San Jose. Newly-elected Senator Dan McCorquodale would win here.

District 11

This seat, made up entirely of San Mateo County, is a marginal district that leans to the Democrats. It has no incumbent.

District 12

This San Joaquin Valley agricultural district includes Stockton, Lodi and Modesto. It has no incumbent and could go to either party in the 1986 election.

District 13

The district of veteran Democrat Alfred Alquist is shifted to the west side of Santa Clara County to include the "Silicon Valley" and the Republican areas of Cupertino, Los Gatos, and Alameda. This is a probable Republican gain.

District 14

The City of Fresno, western Fresno County and Madera County make up a marginal agricultural district that Republican Ken Maddy can hold if he chooses to run again.

District 15

Merced County, the Salinas Valley, rural Santa Clara County and Santa Cruz make up a district that Democrat Henry Mello could have a difficult time holding.

District 16

This district consists of Bakersfield, west Kern County, Tulare County and the mountains of Fresno County. It has two Democratic incumbents living within it -- Walter Stiern of Bakersfield and Rose Ann Vuich of Dinuba. The seat is not up for election until 1986, and Vuich's term expires in 1984. Either party could win in 1986.

District 17

This district consists of all the high desert areas of Kern, Los Angeles and San Bernardino Counties. It has no incumbent, but it would be safe for any Republican candidate.

District 18

This is a coastal district consisting of Monterey, San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara Counties. Democrat Gary Hart would probably not hold on to this seat in 1986.

District 19

This district is the western San Fernando Valley has two incumbents within its borders -- Ed Davis of Granada Hills and Alan Robbins of Van Nuys. The election could go to either party, but only Davis has to run, his term expiring in 1984. Robbins is elected until 1986 from SD 20.

District 20

This district has no incumbent, but the Malibu and Ventura County constituency should elect a Republican.

District 21

This Glendale / Pasadena district should safely re-elect Republican Newton Russell as long as he wants to run.

District 22

This district unites all of the liberal West Los Angeles voting precincts around Santa Monica and Beverly Hills into a safe Democratic seat for Hershhal Rosenthal.

District 23

President Pro-Tem David Roberti should be safe in this district, which places parts of downtown Los Angeles with Burbank and the eastern San Fernando Valley. Under unusual circumstances, however, a Republican could win here.

District 24

This is a solid Hispanic district in East Los Angeles for Democrat Art Torres.

District 25

Republican Senator H. L. Richardson could win this eastern San Gabriel Valley seat, even though El Monte and Pomona would be new to him.

District 26

The Downey and South Gate portions of this district would be new territory for Democrat Joe Montoya, but he should win this seat with ease.

District 27

Republican Bob Beverly should be able to hold on to this seat which unites the wealthy areas of the Palos Verdes Peninsula with the working-class areas of Torrance, Hawthorne and Lawndale.

District 28

This is a solid Democratic district in central Los Angeles for Diane Watson.

District 29

This black district has the highest Democratic registration in the state, and is safe for Bill Greene.

District 30

This is a solid Democratic district for longtime Senator Ralph Dills. But Dills could be subject to a challenge some day from the ethnically mixed western end of the district which includes Carson, Gardena, Wilmington and San Pedro.

District 31

Republican Ollie Speraw gets a new lease on life in the Senate by the re-creation of this safe district which runs from Long Beach to Huntington Beach. Democrat Paul Carpenter of Cypress also lives in this district.

District 32

Newly-elected Republican Ed Royce receives a safe district that runs through the heart of conservative Orange County.

District 33

Veteran Senator Bill Campbell gets a seat which includes Norwalk, Whittier, Hacienda Heights and West Covina. He should have no problems here although this seat is not a safe Republican district.

District 34

Democrat Ruben Ayala gets a marginal seat that includes most of urbanized San Bernardino County. Ayala should survive, but the Republicans could win here.

District 35

Former Anaheim Mayor John Seymour has his base intact in this solid Republican district that also includes Fullerton, La Habra, Yorba Linda and the City of Orange.

District 36

This district includes the west side of Riverside County including the cities of Riverside, Hemet, and Palm Springs. It has a heavy Republican registration but Democrat Robert Presley has been able to hold this kind of seat before.

District 37

This seat has the highest Republican registration in the State, but it has no incumbent. It runs from Newport Beach and southern Orange County to Escondido in northern San Diego County.

District 38

Republican Bill Craven would have to move a few miles to run in this district, but he has represented most of it before and he would be re-elected here.

District 39

This sprawling district runs from eastern Riverside County to the Mexican border. It would be a safe Republican district for Senator Jim Ellis.

District 40

This is a safe Democratic district for newly-elected Senator Wadie Deddeh. It contains most of central San Diego and Chula Vista.

SEBASTIANI REDISTRICTING PLAN
